

SLAP
2018

November 6th – 9th

XVI LATIN-AMERICAN POLYMER SYMPOSIUM
XIV IBEROAMERICAN POLYMER CONGRESS

We would like to invite the entire Latin and Ibero-American polymer community, researchers and students linked to science, engineering and polymer technology to the next SLAP 2018.

The presence of leading national and international invited speakers, the development of the main topics in polymer science and technology, and the planned social activities will undoubtedly make SLAP 2018 a unique event to discuss, reinforce and generate new links and collaborations.

We wait for you in Mar del Plata to enjoy the symposium and our beloved city!
